Dedication

The Senior Class proudly dedicates the 1960 CAVALCADE to MRS. JUANITA EPLEY. Her cheerful smile and friendly manner have encouraged us. Her worthy efforts have challenged us. Her noble example of character has inspired us. Because of her influence, we feel better qualified to take our places in life. Words could never express our love and appreciation to her who has been both teacher and friend.

In Memoriam

To the one who spread only happiness and cheer among all who knew him, smiling through hardships, having an endless faith, and forever displaying courage to hope for a brighter day, to you, SEWELL, who has shared our happiness, sorrows, failures, and triumphs throughout many of our school years, we bestow our fondest memories.

Class Prophecy

"It's still a little hazy. Oh! Wait! It's clearing up a little now. What is this we see before us in our crystal ball?"

We see the famous spaceship HIPPS III, named after the noted scientist, WILLIAM HIPPS, owned by RODNEY DEAL, and piloted by STEVE BURNS, making history by being the first to land on the moon.

As the first people to see the moon descend from the spaceship, we see three noted travelers, GEORGE POWELL, RICHARD COOPER, and WAYNE BRITTAIN; following them is the famous geographical artist, HAROLD DENTON with his stenographer, NANCY TILLEY, who is taking notes on the first moon trip. Ah, yes, next we have the millionaires, PRISCILLA BRANCH, KENNETH SETTLEMYRE, DONALD GRIGG, CAROL GARRISON, WALTER JOHNSON, and SYLVIA HENLEY, all looking for profitable investments.

"Something is clouding our crystal ball. Wait! What's this? The planet Mars." The question, "Are there people on Mars," is now solved. In height these people resemble EDITH FRANKLIN, coach of the Drexel Metorites. Their heads resemble fish—that should interest STEVE HUFFMAN, noted fish biologist. Goodness! Look how they wear their hair. Why, that one pony tail would make even LAVADA JACUMIN and SHIRLEY TOWERY, famous hair stylists, envious.

As we take off from Mars, we leave behind us several teachers—JUDY YARBROUGH, LYNN DUNCAN, PEARL ROBINSON, and LINDA RECTOR—who have decided they like the Martian educational system better than their own.

On the long journey to Jupiter, our agricultural expert, JEFFREY BRENDLE, suddenly becomes ill. Psychologist PATRICIA KIRBY insists that it's just all in his mind, but nurses GLENDA LANE, VIVIAN POWELL, and ALYCE BERRY say differently. Surgeons WILMA MOSES and MIKE HUFFMAN diagnosed the case as being only a stomach overstuffed with milk shakes from the Milky Way, owned by the distinquished bachelor MIKE GRIFFIN.

On sitting down upon Jupiter, we are met by the millionaire wife of BOBBY DAVES, owner of nine of the twelve famous moons of Jupiter. CARROLL FRANKLIN and DON HULL, her business managers, convince businessmen MORRIS BAKER and BILLY HIGGINS; the noted electrician TEDDY MOSTELLER; and furniture manufacturer DALE LYBRAND, that their business profits would be higher on Jupiter than on Earth. But after their decision, their only worry is that their secretaries, HELENA POWELL, HELEN BARBER, VIRGINIA NORTON, and REBECCA EASTERLY, will not agree to accept a new life on Jupiter.

We are now on our way to Saturn, "What's happening!" Our crystal ball is growing misty. Oh! Now we can see clearly again. We are having engine trouble! To avoid panic, stewardesses IRENE SMITH, ALMA MAYE, PEGGY CHAPMAN, and SHIRLEY BROWN reassure the passengers, while the famous engineer, THOMAS SETTLEMYRE, directs his mechanics, CARL CAMPBELL, JACK HESTER, and JOEL SIMMONS in eliminating the trouble.

From a distance we can clearly see the bright rings revolving around Saturn. It is hard to pass the rings, but we finally land. The first thing we see are the bright neon lights advertising the forthcoming concert to be given by conductor JEAN SPENCER, featuring soloist MILDRED LINGAFELDT, accompanied by BARBARA STAMEY. Also on the program are the "Moon Rings"—WANDA HAIGLER, LINDA SMITH, PEGGY CHAPPELL, VEREDAH STEPHENS, and RACHEL NORMAN. During our second night on Saturn, we are invited to RITA GRADY and LINDA AMOS's famous fashion show, with models BRENDA POWELL and BETSY SETTLEMYRE modeling the new stardust fashions with moonstone jewelry accessories in various comet colors.

After a very enjoyable stay on Saturn, we depart for Pluto, the last stop before returning home. Here we find BILLY BURNS and YATES BUFF recording their much envied "Yuk! Yuk! Yuk!" laugh. After playing the record one time, however, SYBIL COZORT had to be given some of BILL RUDICIL's nerve pills.

We were very eager to get back to Earth; therefore our stay on Pluto was short. Before our departure, a very promising religious leader, BETTY SUE PEARSON, wished us a safe journey home.

Finally our ship lands on Earth. KAYE DEAL and WILMA REECE, prominent housewives, find our trip an excellent source of conversation. Coaches PHIL BURNS, HOMER MAYE, and LARRY REECE were constantly talking about the extreme weight and height of planetary sportsmen. But to Coach RONDAL WATTS this presented a problem of future universal competition.

The crystal ball is growing darker and darker. We cannot see anything else. Oh well, this adventure has been rather tiresome, and it's so late....

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1960, believing ourselves to be of sound mind and body, do hereby revoke all former wills as null and void, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

To the School Board, we express our gratitude for their interest in us and for having made these years of education possible.

To the faculty, and our principal, we bequeath our heartfelt gratitude, respect, and love for their interest and efforts in our behalf, and also for the inspiration we have gained by our contact with them.

To the members of the Junior Class, we make the following individual bequeaths:

JEAN SPENCER wills her entire first cornet folder to Kenneth Secrest, hoping he'll put up all that music next year. RITA GRADY and GLENDA LANE will their ability to fix their hair so many different ways to Mary Lowery, with a pack of rubber bands included. DON GRIGG and MIKE GRIFFIN bequeath their Abraham Lincoln walk to Bill Hallyburton and James Pearson. JOEL SIMMONS wills his patience to learn the English accent to James Setzer and Bob Costner, who'll need it next year in studying Old English. To Norman Ross and Ted Deal, JACK HESTER and HAROLD DENTON will their ability to catch the girls' eyes with their curly hair. PHIL BURNS wills all the pleasures and inconveniences of a red "topnotch" to Nancy Powell, Greta Powell, and Pansy Branch, with the assurance that there's enough of each to go around. JEFFREY BRENDLE leaves his little black book to Rondal Williams and Don Bumgarner, hoping there won't be a fight over pages two, six, and nine. SYLVIA HENLEY, VIVIAN POWELL, and EDITH FRANKLIN will their quiet and petit personalities to Billie Kay Cline and Norma Cline. DON HULL and LARRY REECE leave their football shoes and uniforms to Johnny Daye and Charles Brittain. HELENA POWELL and MILDRED LINGAFELDT will their beautiful singing voices, and the ability to reach all the high notes to Kay Baker. WALTER JOHNSON and RICHARD COOPER bequeath their white coats to David Nichols and Roy Lefevers, but only for the Junior-Senior. CARL CAMPBELL, HELEN BARBER, and YATES BUFF leave their lockers on the main floor to Robert Shuffler, Larry King, and David Howell, hoping they'll figure out some way to keep the books in. HOMER MAYE leaves his special route to the magazine rack in study hall to Terry Piercy and Carl Waycaster. VEREDAH STEPHENS and PRISCILLA BRANCH leave a list of the cheerleading yells to Betsy Arrowood and Barbara Settlemyre. To Ronnie Hatley and John Franklin, STEVE BURNS and RONDAL WATTS leave their ability to always be in trouble. MORRIS BAKER leaves all his hot rod magazines to Rex Bradshaw and Johnny O'Kelly. CARROLL FRANKLIN and KEN SETTLEMYRE will their love for "dear hunting" to Larry Smith and Robert Lane. BOBBY DAVES leaves his ability to get his tang all tungled up to Patricia Berry. RODNEY DEAL and BILL HIGGINS will their blond flat-top toupees to David Cook. BRENDA POWELL and BILL BURNS leave Clarence Chapman and Bennett Baird all old receipt books, carbons, pencils, and bills left over from this year's annual. IRENE SMITH and PEGGY CHAPMAN leave their directions on "How to Have Pretty Fingernails" to Linda Barnes. PEGGY CHAPPELL and LAVADA JACUMIN leave their title as "Best Friends" to Glenda Vance and Linda Farris. GEORGE POWELL and WAYNE BRITTAIN will their school buses to anyone who can get up at 6:00 a.m. PEARL ROBINSON, MIKE HUFFMAN, and STEVE HUFFMAN leave their knack for making teachers think they're smart to James Berry. When they go out of style, SHIRLEY TOWERY, ALMA MAYE, and WILMA MOSES will all their pointed-toe shoes to Kathy Russell. BILLY HIPPS and TEDDY MOSTELLER will their chemistry handbooks and notebooks, along with a keep-out sign, to Jimmy Mosteller, BILL RUDICIL and DALE LYBRAND bequeath all their bait and rods to Diane, David, and George, hoping they'll make a good Fisher, but also know how to Frye their Bass. SYBIL COZORT and WILMA REECE will either of their places on the basketball court to Charlotte Williams. To Judy Powell, BETTY SUE PEARSON and LINDA SMITH leave their ability to blush anytime they want to. TOMMY SETTLEMYRE wills all his tardy slips, bad grades, and debts to Tommy Settlemyre. LINDA RECTOR leaves Robert Rector and Ironee Rector the responsibility of upholding any Rector's good name in school next year. EUNICE SECREST, for her sister, returns the nickname of "almighty-high-supreme-being" to Donald Ross, to give back to his brother. JUDY YARBROUGH leaves her last seat in every alphabetical-order classroom to Ralph Young. BARBARA STAMEY and PAT KIRBY bequeath all their piano music to Linda Walker. ALYCE BERRY wills her place in front of the mirrors to Judy Brown and Linda Baird. LYNN DUNCAN and LINDA AMOS will their giggle boxes to Nancy Smith. KAY DEAL and REBECCA EASTERLY leave their methods for getting their man to anyone who wants to take the chance. WANDA HAIGLER leaves her interests in the Hickory Scenery to Pat Summers. CAROL GARRISON and BETSY SETTLEMYRE will their love for pretty clothes to Martha Deal and Annie Sue Epley. To Judy Setzer, NANCY TILLEY wills her love for the armed services. SHIRLEY BROWN, RACHEL NORMAN, and VIRGINIA NORTON leave their grin-and-bear-it attitudes to Bill Crawley and Andy Seagle. ALOMA McCLURED wills her place on the basketball court to Zona Baker.
